The Dedic Anthology

The Dedic Anthology is a new brand in luxury hôtellerie, born out of the passionate belief that travelling should be a presence, not an absence. It is a collective of places where people want to be – and return. It is a vibrant haven of world-class hospitality with a subtly Italian attitude – for the inspired and the inspiring. It is for discerning, curious, contemporary-minded travellers, for whom discovery is about people as well as places.

The Dedic Anthology comes alive with 5 luxurious properties: Palazzo Naiadi (Rome), Grand Hotel dei Dogi (Venice), Palazzo Matteotti (Milan), Carlo IV (Prague) and New York Palace (Budapest).

Moreover, in the 2020 we are going to open other two hotels situated in Florence and Nice.
